

The Johannes Schwalm Historical Association is pleased to announce two new publications this year.

In commemoration of the Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War, we have published The Civil War Letters and Experiences of Samuel Schwalm of the 50th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry Regiment. With an introduction by John Hoptak of the Antietam National Battlefield, this story of Samuel Schwalm, written by family member David Schwalm, includes a history of the 50th Pennsylvania Volunteers, the twenty-eight transcribed letters of Samuel Schwalm to family and friends back home in Schuylkill County, and digital images of a selected number of letters.

In addition, we are pleased to announce that the genealogical update of the Johannes Schwalm family tree will also be available, on a subscription basis only. This lifetime work of Donald Reed of Lancaster, based on available public documents and census records, is titled The Descendants of Johannes Schwalm and Allied Families

Paper Versions:

Volume 1 covers a brief summary of Johannes, his son Frederick and the first two of Frederick's 15 children and their descendants Frederick's first 2 children, who married Schade siblings (351 pages).

Volume 2 addresses the 3rd through 5th of Frederick's children, all of whom married Klinger siblings (453 pages).

Volume 3 addresses his 6th through 8th children (422 pages).

Volume 4 addresses Frederick, his 3 wives and their forebearers, his 9th through 15th children, Johannes and his wife's forebearers, and Frederick's siblings and their descendants (516 pages).

These products are offered at cost and range from $25 to $36 depending on the number of pages.

CD Version:

The CD contains all four volumes at a cost of $25 plus postage ($3.00).

Both the Samuel Schwalm monograph and the Reed genealogy volumes may be ordered through our web site at www.jsha.org or by mail at JSHA, PO Box 127, Scotland PA 17254.